

SOLES 3RD ANNUAL DIVERSITY, INCLUSION, AND SOCIAL JUSTICE EXCELLENCE SHOWCASE FAQS

GENERAL FAQS

What are the basic details of the Showcase?

The Showcase will take place Wednesday, April 22 from 12pm-3pm. All participants and guests will meet virtually via Zoom.

What will be the schedule of the Showcase?

- 12 - 1 Virtual Break-out Sessions Part I
- 1 - 2 Virtual Break-out Sessions Part II
- 2 - 3 Advocacy in Research Panel

What is a Virtual Break-out Room?

Presentations will be grouped thematically. During the event, presenters will show a video of their work and then answer questions from the audience.

What is the Advocacy in Research Panel?

In this student panel, one person from each department in SOLES will share their work/research related to advocacy in their field. This will be a hosted-live Zoom session.

Who can present at the Showcase?

The showcase is hosted by the SOLES community and all SOLES community members (students faculty and staff) are encouraged to participate! In addition, we invite members of the wider graduate studies community within USD to participate as well including the Business School, Law School, and Nursing School.

PRESENTATION FAQS

I have never presented research before, is that OK?

Yes! This is a great opportunity for students to gain experience in their presentation skills in a less formal setting.

Does my research need to be complete in order to be presented?

Not at all. Research is an evolving process and you may present yours at whatever stage it may be in.

How long should my presentation be?

We request videos be between 4-6 minutes. If you are presenting capstone work, your video can be up to 7 minutes long.

Can I present my classwork (capstone / action research) at the showcase?

Yes! If presenting on class research, we encourage students to submit a presentation that is between 5-7 minutes long.

If I present my research, can I still view other people's research?

Of course! Each presenter will be able to view each of their zoom group presentations. All presentation recordings will be available for viewing in a repository after the event.

If I don't present, can I still participate?

By all means! Please register at:

SUBMISSION FAQS

In what format should I submit my work?

Voiceover a poster*; Voiceover a set of slides; Create an iMovie. Your options are unlimited, but we do require they include an audio-visual component. All students have access to Zoom which has an audio-visual recording function

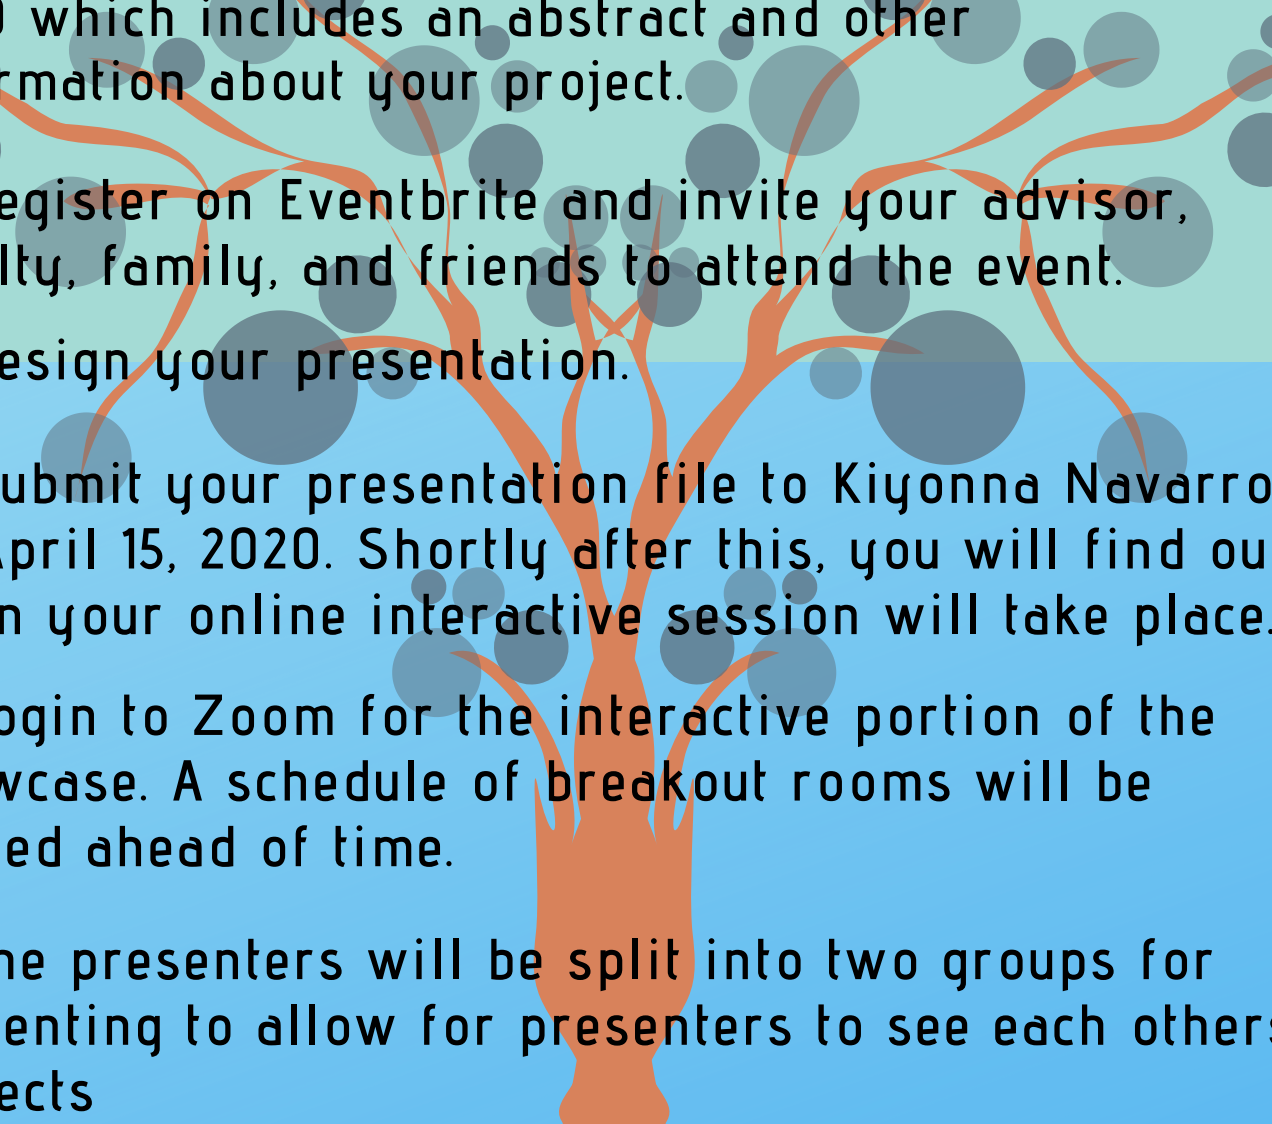

Can I work with a partner?

Yes! We would love to see collaborative presentations.

How do I submit my research/video?

Please follow these instructions.

THE PROCESS AT A GLANCE

- 1) Submit the participation request form by April 10, 2020 which includes an abstract and other information about your project.
 - 2) Register on Eventbrite and invite your advisor, faculty, family, and friends to attend the event.
